

U.S. TO FIX PRICE ON NECESSITIES

Policy of Control Will Provide Fair Measure of Profits

WILSON TO TAKE ACTION

Expected to Outline Wage Regulation Adjusted to Living Cost

Washington. Sept. 28.—Government regulation of retail prices of food, clothing and other necessities and the "equitable limitation of profits" has been forecast officially by Felix Frankfurter, special Assistant Secretary of Labor and chairman of the war labor policies board, as the only basis for a successful labor policy.

Resolutions adopted by the war labor policies board calling upon the war administration to fix food and fuel administration and Agriculture to proceed "as rapidly as possible with the formulation and enforcement" of such a program were made public.

Mr. Frankfurter said the "tremendous difficulties inherent in undertaking price control" are thoroughly appreciated, but, "like other great problems presented by the war, this undertaking must be pursued because the successful enforcement of labor policies is incompatible with the continuation of the conditions usually called the cost of living."

A statement by President Wilson in the next few days is expected to outline a program of wage adjustment, which will be based to a very large extent on the proposed policy of stabilizing prices by Governmental action.

Announcements by the Department of Commerce, Bureau of Statistics, on the abnormal increase in the cost of living in Philadelphia, Boston and New York intended to show how prices of necessities are soaring, so that there might be a general understanding of the problems confronting the wage-adjustment agencies of the Government in meeting the demands of workers for increased compensation.

The investigations of the Department of Labor in industrial centers have shown the great increases in living costs, even though the food administration contended this week the food bill of the nation has increased 3½ per cent during the twelve months ending September 1.

Price control offers the biggest economic problem yet confronted by the Administration, and it is believed here, the President will go to Congress to explain the necessity for the step if it is determined that legislation will be required. It is a problem, officials say, that goes to the very heart of the business of the nation, and one that cannot be solved without extended debate by the interests involved.

GRAVE SITUAZIONE IN RUMENIA E TURCHIA

Il Popolo Ostile al Militarismo Tedesco ed Austro-Ungarico

Roma. 27 settembre. Secondo informazioni qui giunte la situazione in Rumenia e' diventata drammatica per le potenze centrali.

I contadini rumeni sono stati attirati dalle vittorie riportate dagli Alleati e cominciano spietatamente ad essere ostili e resistono al militarismo tedesco ed austro-ungarico.

Locali rivolti sono già avvenuti in parecchi punti. Il governo rumeno ha fatto sapere che a Viena per ottenere che siano mitigate le impostazioni dell'Austria-Ungaria.

Un dispaccio giunto in Svizzera alla Gazzetta di Lausanne reca che l'irritazione pubblica in Costantinopoli e' diventata così grande da dover costringere il governo turco a dichiarare pace separata. Il sultano stesso sarebbe in favore di una tale pace se le potenze dell'Intesa potranno accordare alla Turchia favorevoli condizioni.

Washington. 27 settembre. Dispacci giunti ad autorita' diplomatiche assicurano che l'Austria sta inviando rinforzi alla Bulgaria, le cui armate sono imponenti a resistere all'avanzata delle truppe Alleate.

Parigi. 27 settembre. Rapporti giunti dal fronte di battaglia della Champagne, tra i fiumi Suipe e Marne, indicano che l'attacco delle forze francesi ed americane e' in progresso al di là di tutta la linea, sotto le più favorevoli condizioni.

La quota Armata del Generale Guérard ha ripreso nello Champagne il suo attacco questa mattina, tra le posizioni conquistate al tedesco durante la giornata di ieri. L'attacco progredisce con successo. I francesi hanno ottenuto tutti i loro obiettivi.

Il rapporto del Ministero della Guerra, oggi pubblicato, dice del successo nello sviluppo dell'offensiva e la ripresa dell'attacco da parte delle truppe francesi. Le truppe americane nel settore nord-ovest di Verdun pare che abbiano ottenuto tutto e più di quello che si attendevano.

Sopra: l'intero campo di attacco per i francesi, tra il fiume Suipe ed i boschi di Argonne, le formidabili posizioni tenute da una profondità di più di tre miglia, sono state brillantemente espugnate.

I francesi hanno catturato il Butte du Meunier, il Butte du Souain, il Butte du Tahure, i villaggi di Tahure, Ripton, Rouvroy, Cernay-en-Dormois e Servon-Molicourt.

Più di settemila prigionieri furono prese dai francesi. Gli americani preventivamente avevano rapportato di avere catturato 5000 prigionieri, portando così il totale di quasi 12,000.

Nonostante le sfavorevoli condizioni del tempo i progressi hanno continuato durante tutta la giornata, così annunciò il Ministero della Guerra.

Parigi. 27 settembre. Si apprende che nessuna istruzione, riguardo alla possibile mobilitazione di Bulgaria, sarà data ai comandi militari delle forze alleate in Macedonia, senza che prima vi sia una opportuna consultazione tra Francia, Inghilterra, Stati Uniti, Italia e gli altri Alleati, e nello stesso tempo le operazioni militari dovranno continuare.
